TPS GROUP ACHIEVES INNOVATIVE SME RANKING, 12th OUT OF AIM ITALIA

Gallarate (VA), 6 June 2017 – TPS (TPS: IM), operational holding of the TPS Group, leading company in technical services and engineering for the aeronautical industry, has achieved the ranking of INNOVATIVE SME from the Varese Chamber of Commerce, in recognition of its propensity for tech innovation in the application and development of its own business model.

Alessandro Rosso, CEO of TPS: “I think that achieving the rank of innovative SME is a most important passage in the development process undertaken by TPS, and it goes to show the Company’s commitment to continued technology innovation, an essential condition when it comes to increasing our competitiveness and improving the level of technical services we offer our customers”,

TPS Group is the 12th Innovative SME to be listed on AIM Italia.

The Stability Law of 2017 has brought in important tax breaks for investors, which, since they can be combined with the benefits of the PIR (Individual Savings Plans), make the innovative SMEs listed on AIM Italia a more attractive investment:

- individuals: income tax deductions of 30% on the sum invested; the maximum deductible amount for each tax year is 1 million euro (corresponding to an annual deduction of 300 thousand euro);
- legal persons: corporate tax deductions of 30% on the sum invested; the maximum deductible amount for each tax year is 1,8 million euro (corresponding to an annual deduction of 540 thousand euro).
